

|   |  |
|---|--|
| Contact Information for General Inquiries | Email: adelaideabroad@adelaide.edu.auWebsite: http://www.international.adelaide.edu.au/  |
| GPA Requirement                           | 7 on the 12 point McMaster scale   |
| Levels & Programs Available               | Undergraduate- University Wide   |
| Academic Calendar                         | Semester 1: February – JuneSemester 2: July – November   |
| Course Information                        | Full time (maximum enrolment): 12 UnitsMinimum enrolment: 9 units*Courses offered are usually 3 units eachCourse Information (syllabus)https://access.adelaide.edu.au/courses/search.asp  |
| Accommodation                             | University accommodation includes student residences and share houses and apartments.Information available at:http://www.adelaide.edu.au/accommodation/  |
| Campus Life                               | The Adelaide University Union ensures that there is a lively campus community and culture, with more than 100 students clubs and societies, and 40 different sports associations. Located on campus are: cafeterias, fitness centre, libraries, computer suites and Wi-Fi, health centre, banking and postal facilities, childcare, education and welfare, careers, language and study skills services. Right in the centre of the city, and a few minutes' walk to the lush parklands surrounding the city, to the Zoo and the Botanic Gardens.   |
| City Life                                 | Adelaide is a small but cosmopolitan city 20 minutes away from stretches of clean, sandy beaches. With a 1.2 million population from over 150 ethnic communities, Adelaide offers a rich cultural background with a broad range of restaurants, cafes, bars and markets. Student life is an integral part of the city's charm.Being the 'Festival State', South Australia offers a variety of festivals throughout the year. As well as food, wine and music festivals in March the city is host to the world-renowned biennial arts festival, the Adelaide Festival and the annual Adelaide Fringe . There is also WOMADelaide , the southern hemisphere's biggest world music festival. As well as culture, sport is a big part of life in Adelaide, and it is a venue for the Tour Down Under ( www.tourdownunder.com.au ) as well as other major sporting events. Adelaide and South Australia will always provide the opportunity for a diverse range of experiences. |

|                      |  |
|----------------------|--|
| Approximate expenses | Please refer to :http://www.international.adelaide.edu.au/cost/living/ DAY-TO-DAY EXPENSES IN ADELAIDE (Prices are displayed in Australian dollars): Public transport 10-pass tickets (bus, tram and train): approximately $15 (off-peak, $8)Movie ticket: $13Loaf of bread: $31L milk: $2.50Pint of beer: $4.50Cup of coffee: $3Eating out (dinner): $15-$25Eating out (lunch): $8-$20 Please note that tuition is to be determined by and paid to McMaster University depending on course equivalents |
|----------------------|--|